

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role	Micro Volunteering
Volunteer Manager	RSPB Team
Where you will be based	Home

Why we want you

If like us, you love nature and want to help, then getting involved with our mix and match volunteering opportunity is your chance to do something that really counts.

This is fun, free and really easy.

What you will be doing

- There are many different steps you can take which can help save nature. These are things you can do that we hope you will find easy to fit into your lifestyle.
- They don't need to take a lot of time; they don't need to be done at an RSPB reserve or office. Some are one-off actions; some can be done at any time of the day.
- Often, they are simply a matter of making environmentally friendly choices whether at home, in your garden, in your local community or at the shops. Or making use of your social media to retweet or post news that amplify our message.

The skills you need

- You don't need to be a bird expert or even have loads of free time! You can help us save nature and be certain you are making a valuable contribution.

What's in it for you

- There are many different actions you can take as an individual that when combined with other people's actions make a massive impact in giving nature a home. These are things that are quick and easy that you can fit into your lifestyle.
- If like us, you love nature and want to help, then getting involved with our mix and match volunteering opportunity is your chance to do something that really counts.
